

Ireland Trip July 1-10, 2010

Dear Customer,

Attached is a copy of the itinerary for this year's tour that you requested. As you will see we are traveling extensively in the south and southwest of Ireland showing the Cultural center of Ireland and a great deal of the rugged beauty Ireland has to offer on this trip. Most of our hotels have indoor pools and workout facilities, and even though the Euro and Pound Sterling is expensive right now this tour is great value as we are staying at wonderful hotels. The opportunity to spend a day or two in Dublin before the tour starts is a nice option, we are also considering a two day add on at the end of the tour to spend additional time in Downpatrick for a possible additional focus on St. Patrick and the St. Patrick's center.

Our tours are much different than commercial tours with large companies, and we strive to give you a relaxed tour that allows as much free time as we can manage. Gerry and I are at your service to help you get the most from the tour and you will find a high level of friendship develops amongst the tour group as we explore the Ireland that we know and love. You will enjoy the banter and the music that we can guarantee with our onboard musician, and you may want to return another time with us to see the rest of Ireland.

Our hotels are excellent and you will enjoy great food and hospitality everywhere you go. You can preview our hotels by going online to www.donegal.com and finding the Trip to Ireland info where there will be hotlinks to the hotels. You'll find that all but one this year's spots are 2 or more day stays and the hotels have great facilities and are either very new and modern or very historic and quaint – sort of the major contrast you will see in today's Ireland.

If you have questions about the tour please call me or send an email. We do have a lot of interest with quite a few people in the process of signing up, so send in your $500/person deposit and registration at the end of the itinerary soon if you wish to go. Our group size seldom exceeds 35 people, which allows a lot of room to move in our luxury coach. If you would like a reference from a previous traveler, please let me know, we have many customers who have traveled multiple times with us and would be happy to talk with you.

Yours Sincerely
